NOTE: When the only ID on a pin is the MD designation, we have tired to show those in an effort to assist you in your collection efforts. This is clearly the case for the State Convention pins that merely shows "MD 31 and the date".

The badge to the left is unknown,. Several of these are known to exist, and have been in collections for many years. So it is an early pin. Some think it is an early NC State pin. Others feel it is a pin that was made for North Carolinas Camp Dogwood. At this point no one knows definitively which it is.
